Mission Statement

McCutchanville Community Church's mission is to connect our community with God's power and hope through the love of Christ.

During Lent

it is my hope that you drew closer to God and knew of His amazing grace and love directed toward you. On Easter Sunday, we celebrated the resurrection of our Lord with great worship and adoration. Do we now look backward, inward, forward, or simply just follow Jesus? And you know, I am going to say, let us follow Jesus, and we will do the right thing. So in this letter, it is my hope to prod you to begin “a closer walk with thee.”

Jesus valued People: Jesus went to where the people were, and they knew that he cared for them. He went to a tax collector’s booth to recruit Matthew and stayed for supper. Before the event was over, he had given his critics fodder for their gossip that he ate with tax collectors and sinners (Matthew 9:9-12). With Jesus, people came first, and loving them unconditionally was at the top of his list.

Jesus focused on mission: Those who followed Jesus knew much about His purpose and mission. Perhaps the most succinct of his statements about mission comes from his words to Zacchaeus: “Today salvation has come to this house...For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost” (Luke 19:9-10). There are many other statements about Jesus’ purpose sprinkled throughout Scripture, but the lost are around us – we can invite and welcome.

Jesus thought of Himself as a servant: Jesus’ strategy was to present himself as a servant who asked for nothing – no money, no privilege, no home, no leisure and no privacy. He knew that it was possible for spiritual leaders to hinder the gospel by wanting to be king or queen rather than servant. Look to others first.

Jesus emphasized the future: Although Jesus used history and traditions appropriately; He focused his message and movement on the future. Then as now, His message to his disciples is to get ready for the new things that God wants to do in them and through them.

Jesus took risks by trusting His disciples: Jesus risked the whole Christian movement on the abilities and commitments of ordinary people. After three short years with the disciples, He turned the movement over to them. With the help of the life-giving Spirit, they carried on – and so can we. Remember, we are His Church – it is not “my church”.

But I’m not Jesus. What can I do?

- I can’t give sight to the blind.
- I can’t raise anyone from the dead.
- I can’t turn water into wine.
- I can love people
- I can be in mission
- I can be a servant
- I can focus on the future and work with children and youth

Remember that our focus is sanctification – becoming like Christ as we experience God as we go through life. Jesus’ great desire is for us to love God and our neighbor.

The urging of the Holy Spirit in each of our lives should be the power that causes us to carry on God’s mission in our church and community. Please consider where you are being led.

In Christ’s Love,
Pastor Greg

Memorial Day

Many people confuse Memorial Day and Veterans Day. Memorial Day is a day for remembering and honoring military personnel who died in the service of their country, particularly those who died in battle or as a result of wounds sustained in battle. While those who died are also remembered, Veterans Day is the day set aside to thank and honor ALL those who served honorably in the military — in wartime or peacetime. In fact, Veterans Day is largely intended to thank LIVING veterans for their service, to acknowledge that their contributions to our national security are appreciated, and to underscore the fact that all those who served — not only those who died — have sacrificed and done their duty.

The first official observance of Memorial Day was May 28, 1868, when flowers were placed on the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers at Arlington National Cemetery. According to the Department of Veterans Affairs:

The ceremonies centered around the mourning-draped veranda of the Arlington mansion, once the home of Gen. Robert E. Lee. Various Washington officials, including Gen. and Mrs. Ulysses S. Grant, presided over the ceremonies. After speeches, children from the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan Home and members of the GAR [Grand Army of the Republic] made their way through the cemetery, strewing flowers on both Union and Confederate graves, reciting prayers and singing hymns.

After World War I, the holiday was extended to all soldiers who had fallen in all American wars.

McCutchanville Community Church will conduct a Memorial Day Service on Sunday, May 28, 2017 in the church cemetery at 11:45 am.

Forget

PROFILE OF THE MONTH...

My name is Jody Peak. I am a 35 year old single mother of two beautiful daughters, a female boxer, and a female Pomeranian. My oldest is named Havyn. She is fourteen years old. My youngest is named Trinitey. She is seven years old. They have both attended God's Kids Preschool. Although, I have only been employed here for two and a half years. In my past, I attended some College but ended up getting my Cosmetology License. Suddenly by chance, God's grace seemed to have other plans for me and sent me down another path once I became a mother. That's when I knew in my heart my calling in life was to care for children. So, I've been in childcare for eight years now. The children bring so much joy and happiness into my life. And that love is poured over into my home life spending all my time with my girls and being involved in all of their activities. My girls' keep me super busy but I wouldn't have it any other way!!! Family is very important
